Financial Aid and Scholarships

The goal of the Missouri Western State University Financial Aid Office is to provide students and their families with a professional, unbiased approach to making the dream of higher education a reality. Our objectives include helping students attain a higher education by providing eligible students the maximum amount of financial assistance from all available sources, while keeping student loan debt as low as possible.

The Missouri Western State University Financial Aid Office belongs to the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA). We adhere to a code of ethics requiring us to be “committed to removing financial barriers for those who wish to pursue postsecondary learning.” In adhering to this code of ethics, our student aid professionals make every effort to seek and recommend the best alternatives for our students. More information about the Financial Aid Office’s Code of Conduct, please see missouriwestern.edu/finaid/policies (<https://www.missouriwestern.edu/finaid/policies/>).

Communication to Students

The Financial Aid Office communicates with enrolled and prospective students using the student’s Missouri Western email and the Financial Aid card on Goldlink.

As a general rule, financial aid notices will not be sent by postal mail. Students are responsible for monitoring their status online through Financial Aid self-service and for ALL communications sent to their Missouri Western email account. Students who do not elect to receive electronic communication from Missouri Western should contact the Office of Financial Aid for additional information.

Business Office & Payment Information

The Business Office is Missouri Western’s central office for billing and collection of student payments for tuition, fees, on-campus housing, commuter meal-plans, and other charges incurred by students, including the Missouri Western’s Tuition Payment Plan. The Business Office also processes student refunds of excess financial aid and bills for
